SUPREME COURT DISCIPLINARY BOARD SEEKS NEW MEMBERS

The Nominating Committee of the Hawai'i Supreme Court is seeking non-lawyer community representatives to serve as members of the Disciplinary Board for 3-year terms beginning July 1, 2004. Board membership is voluntary and uncompensated.

The Board investigates allegations of attorney misconduct, and upon sufficient evidence, takes necessary and appropriate disciplinary action. It issues private reprimands, however, recommendations for public censure, suspension or disbarment are forwarded to the Supreme Court for final ruling. The Board is funded entirely by the annual licensing fees paid by the state's practicing attorneys.

Qualifications for Board membership are: sound judgment; ability to be just and impartial in analyzing complaints and recommending discipline; diligence in learning about the methods and organization of the Board. Members must commit to attending monthly meetings.

Interested individuals should send their resume and state their reason for wanting to serve to:

Faith P. Evans
Chair, Nominating Committee
687 Ululani Street
Kailua, HI 96734-4431

The deadline to apply is March 31, 2004. The Supreme Court will appoint individuals from a list recommended by the Nominating Committee.
